

Please keep the No-Call law the same. My husband and I do not want the constant bothersome calls - EVER. We hated that every time the telephone rang, we'd either let the answering machine pick up or answer and tell them to take us off their call list. It has been very peaceful and we want it to stay that way.